ABOUT GCS TRAINING

The Gloucestershire Counselling Service (GCS) was established in 1980 and is the major provider of counselling training services in Gloucestershire. GCS is accredited by the British Association for Counselling and Psychotherapy (BACP). All counsellors at GCS adhere to and work within the BACP Ethical Framework for the Counselling Professions.

GCS has two principal objectives:

- To provide high quality professional counselling at affordable cost to the community of Gloucestershire and its surrounds.
- To provide a programme of professional training in counselling.

Our Counselling Service offers a broad range of direct counselling services in a variety of settings. These services include:

- Adult Counselling Service: Offering confidential counselling to individual adults experiencing personal, emotional, or psychological difficulties. Diploma trainees are offered a placement within our Adult Counselling Service.
- Couples Counselling Service: For people experiencing difficulties in their relationships.
- The Child and Family Counselling Service: Counselling for families, children and young people who are experiencing difficulties.
- School Counselling Service: Counselling on school sites for individual pupils.

Our Training Department offers many training programmes. In addition to our introductory trainings in listening and counselling skills, we provide a comprehensive training programme for psychodynamic counsellors. This training comprises this three-year Diploma in Psychodynamic Counselling and an additional post-diploma programme for counsellors seeking professional registration with organisations such as BACP and BPC.

We also offer training in supervision and couples work for qualified practitioners.

COURSE DETAILS

WHO IS THE COURSE FOR?

The intensive certificate provides a valuable basic training in counselling, particularly for those whose work or voluntary activities involve listening and counselling skills and also for those who may wish to pursue a professional counselling qualification. This course is designed to enhance these skills, develop ways of understanding patterns of human growth and behaviour and increase self-awareness.

COURSE DURATION

The course consists of 18 days spread over 7 weekend & long weekend sessions.

ELIGIBILITY AND BENEFITS

At the end of the year a Certificate in Counselling Skills is awarded, subject to satisfactory assessment. This certificate is evidence of competence in basic counselling skills and is an essential entry requirement to the Diploma in Psychodynamic Counselling at GCS, for which there are further selection procedures. This Certificate is also recognised as the basic entry qualification to Diploma training at other training providers throughout the UK. The certificate is not a licence to practice as a counsellor.

TEACHING MATERIAL

All handouts and teaching material will be emailed to you the day before your seminars by the training team, we ask that you print these off or bring an electronic device to access them during the seminars.

SEMINARS

Each seminar is delivered by qualified and experienced counsellors and group facilitators. Each session provides a blend of core theory, skills development, practice counselling sessions and group/experiential work,

The seminars and roleplays help you develop and apply listening skills and create a sound working alliance. The self-awareness and group sessions offer an unstructured space to develop self-awareness, awareness of others and to recognise and articulate your feelings. Participants will join the same Saturday workshop as our renowned year long course, to develop and practice your skills.

The course emphasises reflection, giving and receiving feedback, challenge as well as open and constructive dialogue.

SATURDAY WORKSHOPS

Attendance is required at these workshops. These are included in the term dates listed here and are not additional days.

The format of these workshops will be different from your usual timetable with us.

The Saturday workshops are an integral part of the course and focus on improving counselling skills and offer the opportunity to meet with trainees on other certificate course groups with GCS.

On the day you will work within small groups of 3 or 4 trainees, plus each group will be allocated a tutor who will offer support and feedback during skills practice for all or part of the day. The workshops take place at the main GCS premises in Stroud which will give trainees an opportunity to experience working in a quieter environment within individual counselling rooms.

The Certificate in Counselling Skills are awarded in July of the year that the course is completed within. Those who are successfully awarded will be invited to join their peers at an Awards evening (date TBC) held in Stroud. The Training Department will inform you of the outcome of your award during the final weeks of the course, by email.

- Confirmation of satisfactory attendance.

Attendance registers are taken at each session. It is required that trainees attend a minimum of 80% of the sessions. A session consists of both the seminar and experiential group. Please note the Saturday workshops count as 2 sessions.

At GCS we are aware that the demands of life may mean you cannot attend therefore we ask that each trainee takes responsibility for their own attendance and notifies training by email as soon as they know they will be unable to attend a session.

- Submission of written work.

Each trainee will be required to write two short essays; 1200 words at the end of the first term and 1800 words at the end of the second term. The subjects and guidelines for completion will be given to you by the seminar tutor at the appropriate points during the first and second terms. Those whose written work does not meet the criteria will be given a chance to speak with their seminar tutor and resubmit their written work.

COURSE JOURNAL & READING LIST

COURSE JOURNAL

Each trainee is required to keep a personal course journal or diary recording his or her thoughts, feelings and comments during the sessions of the course. This journal is private and does not form part of the assessment process but is of great help in enabling the trainee to reflect on the course material. In the event of a future application for BACP accreditation, it provides a necessary log of the areas covered by the course.

READING LIST

A reading list will be given to you at the start of the course. It gives an indication of the books you are expected to read as well as those books that are recommended reading. Many of the books on the reading list can be borrowed from GCS (subject to Covid restrictions) and each course group has a book box available for this purpose. Evidence of relevant reading will be of value in constructing your essays.

A record sheet of the books lent will be available to be filled in. Books should not be borrowed for more than two weeks at a time.

All books must be returned before the last session of the course; note that books that are not returned will be invoiced for the replacement cost.

The staff work with confidential material and often sensitive situations on the telephone and trainees are asked to respect this.
- The central heating is controlled by the staff and should not be altered.
- Security is the responsibility of the staff, but if for any reason you are the last person to leave the premises, please make sure that all lights are turned off and the fire doors are closed.
- Entry to the Stroud premises is by an electronic door entry system. Trainees attending the course will be informed of the entry code at the first session. This code is changed periodically.
- Fire Precautions. Fire doors and a fire alarm system consisting of smoke detectors and alarm buttons protect the Stroud premises. A fire blanket and extinguisher are held in the kitchen on the first floor and extinguishers are also found on the first and second floors.
