ABOUT GCS TRAINING

The Gloucestershire Counselling Service (GCS) was established in 1980 and is the major provider of counselling training services in Gloucestershire. GCS is accredited by the British Association for Counselling and Psychotherapy (BACP). All counsellors at GCS adhere to and work within the BACP Ethical Framework for the Counselling Professions.

GCS has two principal objectives:

- To provide high quality professional counselling at affordable cost to the community of Gloucestershire and its surrounds.
- To provide a programme of professional training in counselling.

Our Counselling Service offers a broad range of direct counselling services in a variety of settings. These services include:

- Adult Counselling Service: Offering confidential counselling to individual adults experiencing personal, emotional, or psychological difficulties. Diploma trainees are offered a placement within our Adult Counselling Service.
- Couples Counselling Service: For people experiencing difficulties in their relationships.
- The Child and Family Counselling Service: Counselling for families, children and young people who are experiencing difficulties.
- School Counselling Service: Counselling on school sites for individual pupils.

Our Training Department offers many training programmes. In addition to our introductory trainings in listening and counselling skills, we provide a comprehensive training programme for psychodynamic counsellors. This training comprises this three-year Diploma in Psychodynamic Counselling and an additional post-diploma programme for counsellors seeking professional registration with organisations such as BACP and BPC.

We also offer training in supervision and couples work for qualified practitioners.

COURSE DETAILS

WHO IS THE COURSE FOR?

The certificate year provides a valuable basic training in counselling, with its roots in psychodynamic theory, both for those whose work or voluntary activities involve listening and counselling skills and also for those who may wish to pursue a professional counselling qualification. This year is designed to enhance these skills, develop ways of understanding patterns of human growth and behaviour and increase self-awareness.

COURSE DURATION

The course consists of thirty 3½-hour sessions during the academic year from September to July. Each of the terms consists of 10 sessions which are held at the same time and place each week with breaks for Christmas, Easter and half-terms, plus attendance is required at one Saturday workshop each term. (Please see term dates and venue details)

ELIGIBILITY AND BENEFITS

At the end of the year a Certificate in Counselling Skills is awarded, subject to satisfactory assessment. This certificate is evidence of competence in basic counselling skills and is an essential entry requirement to the Diploma in Psychodynamic Counselling at GCS, for which there are further selection procedures. This Certificate is also recognised as the basic entry qualification to Diploma training at other training providers throughout the UK. The certificate is not a licence to practice as a counsellor.

TEACHING MATERIAL

All handouts and teaching material will be emailed to you the day before your seminars by the training team, we ask that you print these off or bring an electronic device to access them during the seminars.

SEMINARS

Each 3½-hour session will consist of:

1½-hour seminar, led by a Seminar Tutor. In this session there will be theoretical and practical topics covering counselling skills and attitudes. A programme will be given to you at the beginning of each term.

30 minute break (shorter break in Cheltenham)

1½-hour experiential (self-awareness) group held by a group facilitator.

The experiential group provides an environment for the development of self-awareness through interaction with others within that group. The purpose of the group is to explore what is of concern to individual members and the group as a whole in the 'here and now'. It is part of the group's task to identify these concerns and discover how to work with them with the help of the facilitator. This work provides a source of learning about oneself and about group dynamics. The work of the group and the material revealed by individuals is confidential to the group unless there is a risk to self or others.

SATURDAY WORKSHOPS

The Saturday workshops are an integral part of the course and focus on developing counselling skills through experiential learning. You will be working in groups of 3 or 4 with a support tutor. The support tutor will offer support and feedback during skills practice throughout the day. The workshops will take place at the main GCS premises in Stroud and trainees will have the opportunity to experience working in a quieter environment within individual counselling rooms.

Attendance is required at 1 Saturday workshop each term. It is emphasised that because the Saturday workshops are experiential, it will not be possible to catch up on sessions missed.

The Certificate in Counselling Skills' are awarded in July of the year that the course is completed within. Those who are successfully awarded will be invited to join their peers at an Awards evening (date TBC) held in Stroud. The Training Department will inform you of the outcome of your award during the final weeks of the course, by email.

- Confirmation of satisfactory attendance.

Attendance registers are taken at each session. It is required that trainees attend a minimum of 80% of the sessions. A session consists of both the seminar and experiential group. Please note the Saturday workshops count as 2 sessions.

At GCS we are aware that the demands of life may mean you cannot attend therefore we ask that each trainee takes responsibility for their own attendance and notifies training by email as soon as they know they will be unable to attend a session.

- Submission of written work.

Each trainee will be required to write two short essays; 1200 words at the end of the first term and 1800 words at the end of the second term. The subjects and guidelines for completion will be given to you by the seminar tutor at the appropriate points during the first and second terms. Those whose written work does not meet the criteria will be given a chance to speak with their seminar tutor and resubmit their written work.

COURSE JOURNAL & READING LIST

COURSE JOURNAL

Each trainee is required to keep a personal course journal recording their thoughts, feelings and comments covering the weekly sessions of the course. This journal is private and does not form part of the assessment process but is of great help in enabling the trainee to reflect on the course material, particularly when writing the essays. In the event of a future application for BACP accreditation, the journal provides a necessary log of the areas covered by the course.

READING LIST

A reading list will be given to you at the start of the course. It gives an indication of the books that are recommended reading. Many of the books on the reading list can be borrowed from GCS. Evidence of relevant reading will be of invaluable in constructing your essays.

In Cheltenham your Course Tutor will advise you how to access books. For Stroud trainees, the library is located in the Training room. Please use the sheet in the library to sign out and in any books that you borrow. Books should not be borrowed for more than one month at a time

All books must be returned before the last session of the course; note that books that are not returned will be invoiced for the replacement cost.
